JUNIOR LIONS SELECT DATE FOR BANQUET

Choose Green Cat Cafe For
Scene Of Dinner Dance

As a major entertainment feature of the year, the Junior Lions have completed arrangements for a dinner-dance to be held Saturday, December 3, at 7:30 p. m. in the banquet room of the Green Cat Cafe.

The hall is to be decorated in the Christmas motif with the tables arranged in cabaret style and during the course of the evening dancing will be participated in by the members and guests.

Marion Brooks, chairman of the committee, reports that the dinner will constitute a small part of the program as entertainment numbers have been secured.

The affair will be semi-formal and beside his personal guest each member is allowed to invite one couple to the dinner-dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sundquist, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Holmes were invited as guests of the club. Mr. Chaney is president of the Senior Lions. Mr. Sundquist is a member of that club. Mr. Holmes, head of the commercial department, is adviser to the club.

The cast consisted of Joe Wilson as Teddy Harding, Miss Grace Peck as Mrs. Harding, and Miss Mary Malsed as Betty Harding. These students have been rehearsing the play since the beginning of the year. This is the first of a series of plays put on before members of the Jaysee student body.

Leclil Slayback also gave several numbers on the accordion.

Many Students Attend Pep Rally Before Big Game

Approximately 500 students of Santa Ana Junior college turned out for the rally which was held last Wednesday evening in Santa Ana. The rally consisted of a serpentine through the city with lighted torches and police escorts, and afterwards there was a bon fire and pep rally.

The serpentine was nearly six blocks in length and displayed the spirit of the junior college students. The caravan traveled through the business section of Santa Ana and then went to the scene of the fire out on South Main Street. At the fire there was a pep rally led by Howard Barnes and Walter Workman, who stated that the spirit at the rally was exceptionally good and that it was a pleasure to lead yells before such a crowd. The evening was concluded with a serpentine around the fire and a short talk by Jack Fredricks, captain of the jaysee football team.

"Y" Urges Students To Purchase Seals

The Orange County Anti-tuberculosis association urges the students of Santa Ana Junior college to purchase Christmas Seals. The Y.W.C.A. of the college are taking charge of the campaign for the sale of these seals.

This college organization has been asked by the Anti-tuberculosis association to help in distributing these seal throughout the college and they express the opinion that a worthy cause of this kind could profitably be assisted by the student of the college students. The Health board needs more assistance this season than in the previous year, because if the financial circumstances of this organization.

Santa Ana Will Have Delegates In "Y" Conference At Asilomar

Field Secretary of Pacific Southwest College Y. M. C. A.
Addresses Junior College Group in Cafeteria

According to tentative plans, approximately five delegates from Santa Ana will attend the 36 annual Y conference to be held at Asilomar December 26. It is reported that colleges of six states and the territory of Hawaii will be represented at the convention.

This conference is held to enable the Christian youth of several states to come together and exchange their ideas, problems, and hear messages from national leaders, according to Hugh H. Landram, Y field secretary and council executive who addressed the dinner meeting of the Y.M.C.A. in the school cafeteria last Monday.

This conference at Monterey bay will be addressed by Kirby Page, leader in social and inter-national problems; George A. Coe, critic of education; and Nadina R. Kavinoky, a life; and many other experts of various professions and movements.

At the college Y meeting last Monday, Mr. Landram emphasized the opinion that the Y should be an organization of all Christian men students endeavoring to promote standards of Christ, yet tolerant of each other's opinions. He also stated that the Y program should be conducted to meet contemporary needs.

Tomorrow noon the weekly discussion group will hold another meeting in a corner room of the cafeteria to continue its discussion of labor problems. Howard Barnes, director of this student group, has been pleased with growing interest in these discussions, which are sponsored by the Y.M.C.A.

Students To Take Commercial Test

Fees Are Not Required For Subject B Examination

All students majoring in commerce will be excused from their 1:45 classes to take the required Subject B examination today in room 215 if they wish to enter the College of Commerce at the University of California with full Junior standing.

Reading in modern foreign languages is included in the examination as well as tests in Spanish, French, and German. This exam does not require reading in Japanese, Polish, and Bohemian which is required in many schools where the examinations are given.

No charge or fee is required to be paid to take the examination which is given twice a year, once in the fall and once in the spring. All students who pass the examination are not held for a foreign language at the University.

Rodeo Motif Set For W. A. A. Dinner

Carrying out the idea of a miniature rodeo, preparations are being made for the first W. A. A. spread of the year to be held this Saturday at 6 p. m. in the big gym.

The cowboy motive is to be used in the entire evening's program, according to Miss Ruth Dunn, who is in charge of the entertainment. Following the dinner the members will be divided into four ranches and competition in the form of games will be waged between them. Other features will consist of a bull fight, the virginia reel, and the branding of the new members. Decorations will consist of such items as saw-horses, corals, and a small bar.

Miss Dunn's assistants for the program are Misses Downey and Shirley Day, in charge of the dinner; Florence Turner, tickets and posters; and Carlotta Richards, decorations.

Life Span Of Man Lengthened By Diet

NEW YORK, Nov. 30. (CNS)—Experiments on rats indicate that diets including a large amount of milk tend to lengthen the life span, Victor K. La Mar, associate professor of chemistry at Colombia University, declared this week.

He estimated that human beings could add approximately seven years to the average lifetime by drinking a proper amount of milk.

Band Still Desires To Get Uniforms

Orchestra Plans Voyage On Steamer In Near Future

"Santa Ana Junior college has the privilege of grasping a golden opportunity if it will only obtain a few more members for the band and receive the uniforms that the executive board has promised them when they get 25 members," stated Samuel J. Mustol today concerning the possibility of obtaining band uniforms.

There is plenty of material for a band in the college, continued Mr. Mustol, and there are already 18 members in it, so that it should not be hard to complete the number, or even organize a 40 piece musical organization to play at games and other student activities.

"The students cannot be urged too strongly to get behind this band with all the spirit of the Dons, and put it over so that there will be a real pep organization in this institution" continued Mr. Mustol.

Dean McKee Fisk has stated that he will change anyone's program free of charge if that student will join the band. This is a regular curriculum course, and entitles the student (Continued On Page 4)

"Dry Ice" Subject At Engineer Meeting

Lecturing on the topic "Dry Ice, It's Manufacture and Uses", Mr. T. F. Patterson of the Pacific Carbonics Corporation spoke and demonstrated to the Jaysee Engineers at the regular demonstration meeting held in the Science building last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Patterson gave several demonstrations by freezing various articles with a block of dry ice that he had for that purpose.

Many uses for dry ice such as, meat packing, fruit packing, household refrigerator were mentioned by Mr. Patterson. The cheapness and economy of producing and consuming was also impressed upon the men attending the club meeting.

Illiteracy Is Blamed For Present Times

TORONTO, Can., Nov. 30. (CNS)—"We could end the depression overnight, if it were not for the illiteracy of the people who control the political machine."

This indictment of those in control of the social system was voiced this week by Professor Irving Fisher, Yale University economist. He was a guest speaker at the University of Toronto.

Jaysee Y. W. C. A. Club Celebrates Board's Birthday

Celebrating the 25th anniversary of the formation of the National Y. W. C. A. board, the jaysee Y. W. C. A. held its regular meeting in the Y hut last Monday evening.

In keeping with the birthday party spirit a large cake with 25 candles was served at the end of the supper and gifts were presented to the Y Hut. Mrs. Jennie L. Tessman, faculty advisor, had the honor of blowing out the candles and cutting the cake. Various members brought presents for the Y Hut, among which were two beautiful pictures presented by the Asilomar delegation of last year, including Misses Catherine Chapman, Evelyn Fairley and Marion (Continued On Page 4)

"Y. W." Nets Large Sum From Paper

Netting approximately $20 thus far, the Y. W. C. A. is continuing its sale of stationery in the jaysee hall every noon. All who have used the paper say that it is very fine and is just suited to the purpose of college students.

There are 30 sheets of paper in each package, 15 of which have the Don ensigna on them, and the envelopes also have this ensigna on the back. The price of the package is 25 cents. Whatever money is secured

Representatives Attend Confab And Make Bid For Next Session

Santa Ana junior college will invite the California college president's convention to hold their spring session in Santa Ana when Gene Hall, president of the associated students, and Roy Wheeler, treasurer, attend the fall conference in Long Beach next Saturday. Mr. Hall was authorized to extend this invitation by the executive board at its meeting last Monday afternoon.

The tentative program includes a round table discussion in the morning, a lunch at noon with Dr. Walter F. Dexter, president of Whittier college, speaking; a yacht trip around Long Beach and its harbor; and a concluding session of a dinner dance at the Cocoanut Grove at the Breaker's Hotel.

BENEFIT WILL APPEAR HERE THURS. NIGHT

Troupe Of 31 Entertainers
Will Perform On Stage

Approximately 500 more seats for the Sir Harry Lauder benefit program are now available at $1, having been reduced from the former price of $1.50, according to President Hammond, acting as head of publications for the entertainment. It was reported from the book store that about 65 per cent of the tickets for the Sir Harry Lauder entertainment, to be held in the Santa Ana High school auditorium tomorrow night, have been sold.

The world's greatest performer and Scotch comedian, Mr. Lauder will appear in a full evening of entertainment under the directorship of William Morris. The policy of Mr. Morris has been to always surround the famous Scotch singer and performer with an interesting and clever company of artists, who always do their share in making the performance outstanding and distinctive, according to reports from previous engagements.

Willard Coxely program manager for the entertainers stated that he would be able to present the entire show in Santa Ana and that the facilities were such that they would be able to use all of their special properties. Mr. Coxely and L. E. Beeheimer were in Santa Ana to look over the auditorium and the facilities. (Continued On Page 4)

Tavern Tatlers To View 'Henry VIII'

Seldom Shown Shakespeare
Drama Now In Pasadena

That Shakespeare's "Henry VIII" will be viewed by the Tavern Tatlers at the Pasadena Community Playhouse this Friday evening was decided at a special meeting held yesterday noon.

It was pointed out that this is an exceptional occasion, as "Henry VIII" although one of Shakespeare's most interesting plays, from a historical standpoint, is seldom presented, and is one of his least known works. Furthermore, the Pasadena Community Players have the reputation of giving splendid presentation of Elizabethan drama.

Members planning to attend please sign up on the bulletin board today if possible, as a special 40c rate can be obtained if over ten go. Notice of the exact time of departure from the junior college building will be posted on the bulletin board as soon as possible.

The Long Beach junior college is the host college which includes making all arrangements for the convention. The school is providing for a place for sessions, is securing dates for the delegates that wish them, and is also arranging for a dinner dance and a reduction in hotel rates. Santa Ana jaysee will have the same obligations next May should Santa Ana be chosen as the convention city next semester.

Other student officers may also attend these conventions although only the presidents have power to vote. Gene Hall states that the group meets for the purpose of exchanging problems, solutions, and bettering the understanding between colleges.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

School Work And Leisure

Do you know that originally the words "School Work" meant "House of Leisure"? Judging from the many delinquency notices, students dropping classes, and the loungers in the halls and corridors, one might assume that many students are trying to make of this college a house of leisure.

It has been said that two thirds of the men and women who attend college in the United States should not be there. And the reason that the other third have a right to be there is because they have found that going to college is a job, and have made real work out of it.

Perhaps some students take courses in which they do not have to work very hard, so that they can enjoy college. In that case, either the course is not worth very much or the student is not getting the knowledge he should from it. Everything has to be paid for in accordance with its worth, even leisure. Do you not think that it is better to pay the price of hard work in college and reap the benefits, than accept the pleasure of leisure and have to pay the price, with interest for poor security, afterward?

Observe The Rules

There are some things going on at school which, although not very wrong, may hinder the smooth running of the school. Gambling and smoking on the school grounds are not such bad crimes in themselves, but they may lead to worse. Both high school students and the newer college students follow in the footsteps of the higher classmen in college. They look to those higher students for guidance and leadership. When they see their idols breaking a few rules they think that they should do the same. Often, however, they do not stop with doing the same things, but break any rule they want to.

College students should have sufficient intelligence to govern themselves properly and to abide by rules set for them. The rules were made primarily to help the students. It must be carelessness therefore, on the part of the offenders, for it does not seem possible that they would deliberately disobey the rules. Think of all these things next time you are tempted to break any of the college rules.

Y. M. C. A.

A few weeks ago the college Y. M. C. A. conducted a financial campaign in an endeavor to secure subscriptions to their service fund. Unfortunately the campaign met with little success.

Most students upon entering Jaycee have enjoyed the use of the Frosh bible, a handbook of school activity, and the entire student body at one time or another has gleaned bits of knowledge from the Los Angeles Times which has been subscribed for and placed on the bulletin board by the Y. M. C. A. for the enlightenment of the students.

Yet very few of us who have enjoyed "Y" contributions have subscribed to their service fund. The great debt of the student body to the Y. M. C. A. has found little expression. Contributing to this fund was not merely the paying for a service but the contribution to a service fund that the service might be continued. We laugh at the man who killed the goose who laid the golden egg, but we do nothing to keep her from starving to death.

Football Rivalry

When in defeat, a school shows its true blue. The Dons took that Fullerton victory standing up and proved that they were men and women who knew how to act decently.

There was no ballyhooing over the outcome—no high school style beefing and harranging. Fullerton was an unusual host, even to her traditional rival. Their aim, to welcome and make Santa Ana feel at home, was realized.

Local spirit was as buoyant as never before. It fairly carried the student body en masse to the yellowjacket grid. This was evidenced in the caravan of fifty to sixty cars which paraded noisily through both towns.

This Turkey Day action was representative of a fine school, and that school has every reason to feel extremely proud of itself.

SHORT SHOTS

AGE OLD

A snob is one who is unsuccessful in his conceit, that is, he is one who believes that he is more successful than he is. If you become snobbish, you lose whatever success you may have had. Many are led to believe that conceit is a part of sophistication. It is! The trouble with most of us is that our conceit turns us into a snob. We do not understand that just what conceit consists of is what causes all of the difficulty. Conceit is a result of our personal judgment, or analysis, of ourselves. Some of us were never meant to be analysts.

RIVALRY OR HATE?

Rivalry is one of the things that makes this old world go 'round. If it were not for rivalry, I am afraid this world would be at a standstill. Rivalry is a good thing as long as rivalry is only rivalry, when it turns to hate, and causes people to lie about others, cheat others, and snub others it is no longer rivalry, it is hate. And hate does no good. Hate has caused more trouble in this world than any other single thing. Hate is the father of trouble; rivalry is the father of many good things that are done. If it were not for rivalry, trying to beat the other fellow, many things would never have been done.

TOO MANY SIGN-POSTS!

Seeing "Too Busy To Work" brought back to my mind the saying of Dickens when he was describing one of his characters, I believe Mr. Pecksniff. "They likened him to a sign post because he was always pointing the way without going there himself." If you are anxious to see a modern "sign-post", take a good look at yourself, and if you are not one, look most anywhere; there are numerous "sign posts" standing around and waiting.

MERELY A LOAN

Fe we people have much use for George Jean Nathan, but I do. One of his best bits of wisdom is simply this: "A man possesses nothing surely, save a brief loan of his body." That can be interpreted two ways. Either, keep good health, and have a long life, or have a short and a merry one. He meant, as he does, have a short and a merry life. That brings, again, to my mind that saying about common sense. "Common sense is a good thing to have as long as you don't let it master you; it might deprive you of a few things that's fun to do."

MONDAY BLUES

Mother calls. Answered with a low rumbling snore. Mother calls again. Turn over. Again mother calls. Un-gum one eye and look at clock. Sigh wearily. Shut the eye. Mother calls again. Fall out of bed. Drape on clothes. Make an exhausted pass at teeth with a damp toothbrush. Lifelessly shove a comb thru hair. Meander into the kitchen. Galvanize into action as you sight the kitchen clock. Gurgles a slurp of red-hot coffee. Swallow a piece of toast by the vacuum-cleaner method. Inhale a banana. Grab some books, any books. Disappear thru the front door at a gallop. Aw, gee whiz heck gosh darn jiminy—school again.

CHIC FEMMES

Dignity and sophistication are combined in the latest modes.

Sweaters with silver or gold threads woven into the designs are very attractive. The gray with silver in cobweb pattern would be a welcome addition for the one who wears gray, while the gold threads combined with green or wine would add a gay touch to costumes in these shades.

The latest metallic touches are the flowers which seem to be molded from the very metals which they are to complement, in the way of jewelry and buttons. These little boutonnières of silver or chromium tumes, while the coppery colors could be used with the browns and Patou pink.

Soft clinging silk jersey in dahlia red sophisticated enough to please the debutante herself is the material used in a charming evening gown shown in one of Fashion's latest whims.

Velvet gloves are considered very smart for evening.

Cathedral gray—the newest—although the oldest gray there is, perhaps, is very very smart this season—and more often becoming than other

BOOKS, MUSIC, ART

BY BLYTH McCAUSLAND

BOOKS

An announcement of importance has just been made. John Galsworthy has recently published a new book. The new title is "Flowering Wilderness" and brings to the reader a better acquaintance with some characters casually met in some of his earlier works on the Forsyte family.

Galsworthy, for his hero, has resurrected Wilfrid Desert, a poet, who once attracted Fleur's fancy. (You who are acquainted with the Forsyte Saga will remember Fleur as the one who was always interested in "lame ducks".) The lady in the new work is Dinny Cherrell who we glimpsed at Fluers wedding in "Maid In Waiting".

Wilfrid has spent the intervening years in the East where he was forced to make a decision that, when it was found out in London, causes him to again leave the country. Dinny is ready to go into exile with her husband or stay in England and face the music but her family is, of course, quite upset.

Like all Galsworthy books this one has distinction but perhaps it lacks some of his usual vigor and charm.

"Mary Lincoln; Wife and Widow", a new biography by Carl Sandburg makes a good companion piece for his earlier work on the martyred president.

This new book by Sandburg (who is essentially a poet) lacks some of the strength and intimacy of the previous work but is a competent biography and characterization never the less.

MUSIC

From Los Angeles come well founded rumors that this is the last year that W. A. Clark Jr. intends to carry alone the burden of the deficit of the Philharmonic Orchestra. The present contracts expire at the end of the current season next spring.

According to those in charge the thing needed most is a greater attendance.

Certainly this organization is worthy of the support of cultured people of all Southern California and it is therefore incumbent upon them to make an honest effort to get to the auditorium once in a while instead of being content to sit at home and listen to them on the radio.

The loss of this really good unit of our cultural life would be a real and irreparable tragedy.

ART

As is usual at this time of the year when Christmas is almost upon us the art exhibits are not so good as they might be. Almost everything being shown at the present is done so to attract the gift buyers' eye. This fact almost automatically precludes any chance of its being painting at its best.

The art-crafts are probably less affected by the mentioned condition than is painting for some really quite worth while things may be found in the better department stores and art galleries.

THEATER

A note worthy of mention is found in the theater pages this week in the announcement that for the first time in its history the Belasco Theater in Los Angeles will for a limited time offer a moving picture instead of legitimate drama. The offering is an imported German picture titled "Maedchen in Uniform".

I sincerely hope that this move is not prophetic of what is to come as there are more than enough picture houses (and more) to show good pictures. Let it not be said of Southern California that it has turned completely away from the stage in favor of the screen that is pitifully mediocre.

T. H. Glenn attended Wofford College at Spartanburg South Carolina for four years and one graduate year. He obtained his A. B. and M. A. degrees there. While in college he entered into many activities. He joined the Kappa Sigma fraternity and was on the freshman football squad the first year and the varsity the next three years. He was especially interested in debating and twice represented his college in the state forensic contest between nine non-co-educational colleges of the state. The first time Mr. Glenn placed third and the second time brought home to his college the honor of first place. Journalism was another of Mr. Glenn's interests. He was a reporter for the weekly paper and editor-in-chief of the college annual.

After graduating, Mr. Glenn taught one year before joining the Marine Corps. in 1918. During the war he was stationed at Parris Island, South Carolina at a Marine Training Station and also at League Island Navy Yard, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. After the war Mr. Glenn resumed teaching. He has been principal of two high schools and has been teacher of English and head of the department of Santa Ana Jaycee for nearly ten years.

Traveling has always been Mr. Glenn's hobby. He has visited most of the countries of Europe, having been there five times, and once to the Orient. Last June Mr. Glenn married Mademoiselle Louise Mathilde Besenfelder of France. She is a graduate of the University of Paris and was for seven years a professor in Alliance Francaise. She taught two summers in the summer school in Middlebury, Vermont and is now the head of the French department in St. Elizabeth college Morristown, New Jersey.

THE EDITOR SPEAKS

VACATION IS over for a short time. Remember that and get in and work for an A in each course. You probably won't get it, but work for one any how. The effort won't hurt a bit and regardless of the grade you will have learned something.

THE STUDENT body is to be congratulated upon its behaviour at the game Thanksgiving day. It certainly cannot be said that members of Santa Ana junior college do not know how to conduct themselves in a sportsman-like manner.

NOW FOR something not so complimentary. The people in attendance at the Letters and Science part of the last divisional assembly were impolite to say the least. Squirming in seats, talking and above all blowing feathers in the air do not come under the head of college activities. That sort of thing wouldn't be expected even of high school students. How much worse it is for college students to indulge in such infantile practices

During their last meeting the Gauchos split a tonsil over this one: A hard boiled miner breezed into a saloon in a desert town in Nevada and demanded the strongest drink in the place.

The bartender, Mojave Joe, told him to step in the kitchen to wash his hands and face while the drink was being mixed.

Meanwhile a preacher, dusty and dreary after an arduous journey, walked in and pleaded: "Mr. bartender, I have trod the desert for seven days with little food or water, and I have but a thin dime in my purse. Would you be so kind as to sell me that glass of milk at that price?"

Mojave Joe eyed the cocktail which he had just prepared and replied: "Far be it for me to deprive a thirsty clergyman of a drink; help yourself, brother."

The reverend lifted the glass to his lips and drank slowly, but drained the last drop.

He set the glass down on the counter, and, raising his eyes toward heaven, he solemnly offered: "Lord what a cow!!!"

Dons To Play Vikings For Charity In Night Game

S. A. LOSES TO FULLERTON IN LEAGUE FINALE

Zwolman Is Hornet Hero In Yellowjacket Win On Thanksgiving

In a game packed with thrills from start to finish Fullerton's Hornets nosed out Santa Ana's Dons by the narrow margin of 13-14 in their annual Turkey day tussle on the Fullerton gridiron. Goal line stands, open field runs, numerous fumbles and long thrilling passes were combined to make it one of the most startling games ever witnessed on a Fullerton football field. Santa Ana ran wild during the first half to chalk up long runs at will and score two touchdowns to lead the parade at half time 13-0. Fullerton came back in the 2nd frame to unleash a passing attack which scored two touchdowns, enabling them to walk off the field a winner in the ninth renewal of their annual battle.

Santa Ana Strikes

The game was but a few minutes old when the Don machine went into high gear. Taking the ball on their own 21 yard line after a Fullerton drive had fell short, Santa Ana marched over the Hornets in grand style. On a reverse Higashi crashed off right tackle for a thrilling 25-yard run. Bell added 4. A forward pass Bell to Lash, gained 12 yards. Several plays later Bell made a first down on the Fullerton six yard marker. On fourth down Wally Smith plunged over center for the score. Higashi's drop-kick was wide to make the score Santa Ana 6 Fullerton 0.

Porky Bell Shines

Porky Bell was head and shoulders above any other back on the field. His long runs kept the Yellowjackets in not water throughout the initial half. The second Don score was made after long runs by Porky placed the pelota near the Fullerton's goal line. Taking the pill on their own 20 yard marker after Fullerton had been held for downs on the Don five yard line, Santa Ana engineered their final scoring drive. Bell drove off right tackle for a 25 yard gain. On the next play Mistah Bell crashed through left tackle, evaded half dozen tacklers, cut back to the side lines and fought his way through a broken field to Fullerton's seven yard line before being hauled down. Two plays later Porky hit right tackle to score from the six yard line. The conversion by Higashi split the uprights to give Santa Ana the extra point.

Hornets Sting Twice

With but one quarter left to play the Hornet struck. Zwolman, curly haired Fullerton end, was on the receiving end of passes which were instrumental in the Don downfall. Near the end of the third period a pass, Varner to Zwolsman, placed the Yellowjackets in their first scoring position. Varner scored from the one yard line.

One minute later Fullerton was again knocking at the Santa Ana goal line. A pass to Zwolsman netted a first down on the Don 25 yard line. On fourth down Mr. Zwolsman caught a pass on the 12 yard line for another first down. Two more passes, one to the six yard line and the other for a score were completed by Zwolsman. With the score tied 13-13 Mr. Zwolsman picked a pass out of the air in the end zone for the point which beat Santa Ana 13 to 14.

L. B. Track Men Start Earliest In History

The earliest track practice call in the history of Long Beach junior college will be issued by Coach Oak Smith this week. The early start is because of the Southern California College Relays that will be held at Stephens field on February 28.

For the first time the relays have been awarded to a junior college. Last year's meet was held at Occidental.

Six Viking lettermen will respond to the call. They are: Captain Whitey Rogers, 440; Vincent Reel, sprints and hurdles; Bill Dudley and Windy Jones, pole vault and Willard Greens-

SPORT TIPS

BY AL FORCEY

Hike, Notre Dame

U. S. C. stock has gone down considerably after the beating that Notre Dame handed the Cadets from West Point. In giving the Soldiers their worst beating by Irish hands since 1921 the ramblers have shown a real Rockne kind of football—namely, a speedy, dazzling offense with plenty of blocking, and a sturdy, unpenetrable defense.

The Notre Dame, U. S. C. annual four quarters of thrills and suspense this year promises to be the battle of the century with no holds barred. Among the most interesting of individual contact between stars will be the battle among the giant tackles of each team. S. C. has two outstanding ones in Tay Brown and Ernie Smith, while the Ramblers can boast of their equals in Ed Krause and Joe Kurth. The only probable advantage that Anderson's men will have will be in reserves.

Coach Howard Jones of Troy in a late statement to the press, promised a shake up in the Trojan lineup. According to Jones certain Trojans have assumed a too complacent attitude which will be suicide against such a team as Notre Dame. Hunk Anderson, too, must have deflated some of his swelled heads.

Some Are Born Lucky

Emmett Garner, a tackle of the Furman University football team scored a touchdown on the first play of his first varsity game. He caught a blocked kick and raced 20 yards for a score.

The Forgotten Man

In picking an All-Southern California in high school football teams it is the opinion of the majority of all local fans that one of the most eligible for a position on the team has been omitted. Willard Noe, stellar Santa Ana tackle. Noe has been the outstanding pillar of strength in the Saint defense in every game. He has even approached the heights of Lutz of 1931 championship team. Noe didn't even get honorable mention. But as Irving Eckhoff of the Times says, "If you don't like it retire gracefully and cry your eyes out."

Pulling Out The Stingers

In admitting defeat to the Fullerton Yellowjackets the Santa Ana Dons have no reason to feel downhearted because it was only through some desperate and cleverly executed passes that the Hornets were able to score at all. Fate itself decided the conversions—and the conversion decided the game. The Dons showed superiority in every department of the game except the one that proved the most useful—namely, passing. The Dons entered the game eager to show that they could play football. They did for their drives down to the Fullerton goal line showed hard, masterful football.

Every student of this college has been proud to entrust the institution's football reputation to this year's squad and has felt that it has not suffered any in their hands.

Veteran Racketeers Return To Chaffey

Six returning lettermen to the Chaffey junior college tennis team have increased the Panther's chances for a Southern California championship five prospects are also in line for the doubles team.

Wayne Grocey, a returning letterman, and Albert McCurdy will team up for probably one of the strongest doubles teams in the conference.

The returning lettermen are doubles, Wayne Gracey, Bill Rogers, Standford Shaw, and David Rightman. Singles, Bill Reynolds, John Sherman. The new men so far are Albert McCurdy, Fred Miler, Joe Reynolds, Walter Hall and Charles Key.

Benevolent Battle To Be Last Trial For Both Grid Squads

Welty, Higashi, Williams, Fredericks Of Santa Ana's Injured List May Not Be Able To Play At Bowl Long Beach Will Send Full Strength Squad

Santa Ana's fighting Dons will make their final 1932 appearance next Friday night at the Santa Ana Municipal Bowl when they meet Coach "Oak" Smith's Vikings from Long Beach in a game to be played for the benefit of charity. Benefits of the game are to go to the Unemployed Association of Santa Ana. Expenses are all that the two schools are to receive. Officials of the Orange Empire League are donating their services gratis.

Arrangements for the game and extra activities to take place preceding the game and during the half period are under the supervision of a committee of Santa Ana citizens headed by George Wells, president of the board of education. Assisting Mr. Wells are Eugene Kahen, ardent local football fan, Barney Coster, and Mayor Paul Witmer of Santa Ana. It is hoped that the services of either Howard Jones, Jim Thorpe or Ed Brickley, the great drop-kicker, will be secured to speak during the half.

The Don football team is lending its services even though the season is really over. As a reward the Unemployed Association of Santa Ana is this year giving the banquet that is annually given the football team at the close of the season.

Long Beach boasts of a powerful team, and has dropped but two games in the Western Division League. One of these was a close fought game with Los Angeles Jaysee which the Cubs won as the result of a blocked punt. The other game was dropped to Pasadena, league champion. Two other games have resulted in scoreless ties, which might indicate that the Norsemen are a strong defensive team. One of the mainstays of the Viking squad is Captain "Father" Abrahams, veteran gaurd. Moan, fleet halfback, is the most threatening back on the Long Beach team while Eltiste has been a strong favorite for All-Conference tackle honors. Bill "Banjo-eyes" Mooney is an end who seems to draw passes to his capable hands. While on defense his watch-word seems to be "they shall not pass".

Although many of his first stringers are on the injured list, Coach Cook hopes to put a powerful squad on the field against Long Beach Friday night. It is very doubtful whether Harold Welty, Hideo Higashi, Swede Williams or Jack Fredericks will be in condition to give their best, and so suitable substitutes must be found.

Coach Cook's starting lineup will include a forward wall of Lash, and Carlyle ends; Koral and Conkey at tackles; Williams and Heffern guards, and Handy, center. The backfield will be Bell at quarter, by virtue of his good generalship in the Fullerton game, Higashi and Fredericks at half backs and Wally Smith at full.

Co-eds Play In Contest Saturday

Tennis balls, basket balls, and volleyball are receiving hard usage by jaycee women this week in preparation for the first playday to be held this Saturday at Compton. Other junior colleges represented consist of Long Beach, Compton, and Fullerton.

Approximately 40 women will leave Santa Ana by bus at 7:15 a. m. Saturday morning in order to be at Compton for the parade which will open the games at 9:00 a. m. They will be accompanied by Miss Zena Leck and Miss Mabel Robinson.

The teams participating in this playday consist of three tennis groups a first and second singles, and a first doubles; one volleyball team made up of both freshmen and sophomore women; and three basketball teams consisting of two first teams composed of sophomores and one second team made up of freshmen.

Following the games which are scheduled to end at noon, a 35 cent

Bengals Defeat Chaffey Panthers

Riverside vs. Chaffey

Coach Jess Mortenson's Bengals cinched the Orange Empire conference by handing Chaffey a 6 to 0 defeat Thanksgiving day.

Chaffey's defense held Riverside until late in the fourth period when Andy Rogers, Bengal fullback, skirted left end for seven yards to a touchdown.

Citrus vs. Pomona

Coach Al Claves' Citrus Owls finished their grid season by upsetting the Pomona Cossacks 13 to 6 in their annual Thanksgiving day tussle.

Under the excellent field generalship of quarterback Van Fliet, Citrus scored in the second and fourth periods on passes to Nichols and Nix, respectively. Slottswood scored the lone tally for Pomona in the third quarter.

luncheon will be served after which the participants will board their respective busses for home.

Santa Ana Dons To Aid The Needy In Night Game Friday

Santa Ana junior college will sponsor a benefit game to be played between the Dons and the Vikings. The game will be played Friday night in the Santa Ana Municipal Bowl, at 8 o'clock.

The game will be played for the help of those of this city who are unable to take care of themselves because of the economic situation of our country. The players of the college are doing their part and it is up to the students to do their bit. Every member of the junior college should help to make this game a success, and should spread the news of the games to all the people he comes in contact with. This is an easy way to do your bit so let's talk up the game.

El Don Presents All-star Players

In offering their all-conference grid selection the Don staff wishes to announce that the merits of opposing players were determined solely upon their showing in games against Santa Ana. Although Santa Ana finished near the bottom of the league we believe that the Dons possess as many good players if not more than some schools who were nearer the top. One point margins of victory are not conclusive of superiority.

Viking Sophomores To Play Freshmen

The fourth annual inter-class football struggle between the Long Beach freshmen and sophomores will take place on December 9. A terrific struggle is expected because the frosh are out to avenge their last defeat and to win their first victory.

Last year the first year men were leading the first half by the score of 12-6. The sophs, however, came back to finish strong and chalked up three touchdowns in the final period to win, 24-12. In 1930 the sophs barely won by a 6-0 score.

To play in these games the participant must have had former football experience, but can not be a member of the varsity squad. The coaches must be from the varsity.

As the annual reign of King Football draws to a close basketball prepares to mount the throne of athletic importance. At Santa Ana the event is heralded by the announcement of the league schedule for the Dons. This schedule, as may be observed, is the reverse of the football schedule. Coach Foote has also arranged for many practice games preceding and interspersed with the league games.

Newcomers are "Porky" Bell, Jim Lash, Tom Carlyle, Harold Welty, Tex Bowden, Bill McDaniels, Tex Harris, "Swede" Williams, Charles Lawson, and Byron Stoddard. ## Railway Head Offers Reduced Rates Christmas

Through the courtesy of the Southern Pacific Railway Company, special reduced round trip fares will be offered to the high school and Junior college students during the Christmas Vacation season. The rates will be good for various points of interest in California to which the students should like to journey.

In a letter addressed to the junior college from E. B. Sharpley, of the Pacific Electric Railway Company, he stated that the sale will last the three days beginning December 15 and continuing through the 16th and 17th. The return limit has been set for January 8th, 1933.

Any student wishing to take advantage of this vacation rate should fill out an identification certificate, which may be obtained at the Southern Railway Company or at the Pacific Electric Ticket Office. Mr. Sharpley stated that this is a great offer and one may make large and profitable savings by taking advantage of these facts.

Debaters Will Not Vie With Redlands

Although Santa Ana Junior College will not enter a debate team in the Redlands University invitational tournament, a group of the debate students will journey to Redlands University Saturday morning to listen to the finals of this contest.

There were many people out for the positions on the teams but Sheldon M. Hayden stated at the first of the year that there must be sufficient preparation made on the subject before he would enter anyone at all in the contests. The time is too near at hand to make much further preparation states Mr. Hayden and from all appearances the students are not nearly ready to enter into such keen competition.

The students that have reported for debating are the Misses Marjorie McCaul and Jean Rockwell. The men who have reported are Dick Gardner, Austin Joy, Bill Kistingner, Dean Benton and Douglas McAdam. Mr. Hayden, the advisor of the group, will accompany them on the trip to Redlands Saturday.

Polly says she has just the costume for the fancy dress ball. That may mean little or nothing.

Christmas Dance Is Featured At Country Club

Santa Ana Junior college will sponsor the annual Christmas dance at the Santa Ana Country club, Saturday, December 17. This was announced by Miss Helen Bowers at the Executive board meeting held last Monday evening.

The executive board, after considering the prices for the affair, decided that all Associated student ticket holders should be admitted free, but that non-ticket holders, alumni, and guests be charged 50 cents each for admittance.

According to Miss Bowers the dance, as has been the custom in past years, will be semi-formal and that a good lively orchestra will be secured for the affair.

Bachelors Launch Annual Food Drive

Mel Wiseman, Jimmie Goodfellow, and Dean Benton will have charge of the Brotherhood of Bachelors' food drive which will be launched within the week, it was announced last Monday by the Grand Exalted, Bill Campbell. The students are asked to co-operate on this project to their utmost, since the proceeds go to needy families around Christmas time.

The Bachelors are sponsoring a half hour radio program over station KREG tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 with Mr. Campbell master of ceremonies. Duncan Harnois is slated to play classical and popular selections on the piano; a trio, Bob Wilson, Dean Benton, and Ernie Farnum will sing two popular airs; Gene Hall undertakes to tell the radio public of the service this club is rendering the school; and Dean Benton will finish the program crooning some jazz numbers.

In case it snows this winter, the Bachelors will take charge of a snow party caravan.

For next Monday's meeting, Jack Weatherly, Jim Goodfellow, Mike Santa Cruz, Harry Clayton, and Paul Bruce will serve as the committee to further initiate the scums.

to one unit of credit per semester. Mr. Mustol revealed the fact that there are now many "A" students in the band and the rest merit "B's". The jaycee orchestra, composed of the best musicians in the college, is making a call for a cellist, a drummer, and a few other instruments, so that they can have a complete ensemble to give regular programs. Anyone interested should see Mr. Mustol as soon as possible.

This group of musicians is well organized this year, and, is making plans to take a trip on a steamer as the ship's orchestra. They play both classical and popular selections. This is totally an ex-curricular activity, and no credit is given for the work. The students just work because they enjoy it, according to Mr. Mustol, and are extremely satisfactory as a college orchestra.

Women Celebrate "Y" Hut Birthday

The business session featured Miss Toozee. Nancy Elder of the city Y. W. C. A. who talked on the movement for a national Y. W. C. A. Miss Elder told of the early "get-togethers" about 79 years ago of women students, who, being away from home, desired to come together in a religious organization. Up to 1906, the organizations had grown separately with no definite connection among the scattered groups over the country. At that time, the national movement began, and through the outstanding of Miss Grace Dodge the women and girls were brought together the following year. On concluding her speech, Miss Elder told of the good that has been done and is being done by this organization.

In the absence of Miss Dorothy Ensign, chairman of devotions, Miss Ruth Jenkins led the devotional period, choosing for her topic "The beauty of life as expressed in poetry." She illustrated her talk by reading poems in which this thought is expressed.

On opening the business session, Miss Catherine Chapman, president, announced that the next meeting, December 12, will be a joint supper with the Y. M. C. A., that another discussion group on economics will be held in the cafeteria at noon, Thursday, and that another cake sale will be sponsored in the near future.

Preceding the meeting Miss Mary Nalle led the group in a number of peppy songs.

If a girl grins at another girl and yells "Hi" that's friendliness, but if she smiles at a boy and sings "Hello" that's flirting.

Santa Claus Visits El Don Office Early

Santa Claus, alias Thomas H. Glenn, appeared a month early on the jaycee campus, it was learned, following the receipt of a gift package at the El Don office today. The gift proved to be a half dozen copies of Wolley's Handbook of Composition one copy for each editor of the newspaper staff. A note contained in the bundle left by Mr. Glenn, alias Claus, alias Kris Kringle, advised that the gift was not inspired by grammatical errors appearing solely in the El Don but was donated for the purpose of helping the writers to avoid slips of speech prevalent in professional journalism all over the country.

ties of the school and stated that they were very well pleased and that they would be able to bring their entire cast of 31 to Santa Ana. It also was decided by heads of the program committee that 25 per cent of the proceeds will go to the student loan fund of the high school and college, according to Mr. Hammond.

The press of the West and Western Canada has been unstinted in praising Sir Harry, but it has not refrained from giving credit to the company of his very interesting company. In the way of singers probably the most attention has been given to Helen York and Virginia Johnston. These girls both have exceptional voices. Miss Johnston is a dramatic soprano and began her career as a church choir singer. Afterwards she adopted the stage as a profession, and for a year sang the title role in the great musical success, "Rose Marie".

Helen Yorke, present associate of Miss Johnston, began singing in public when she was only fifteen years of age. Then, when given the choice of going to college or to go to Italy to study music, she chose the latter, and returned to America with her flute-like voice developed into a lovely coloratura soprano.

When she and Miss Johnston first met they were not particularly friendly; each discovered in the other a gifted and clever rival. Then, as they learned to know each other, they concluded to form a singing partnership, and Yorke and Johnston have won fame both in this country and abroad. Their contributions to the Lauder program range from Southern melodies to grand opera.

Madie and Ray give an entirely different act. They are among the youngest of entertainers, but have developed a cleverness in rope twirling that is phenomenal. Miss Madie is a beautiful young girl and dresses charmingly, while her brother, Ray, has a youthful, masculine charm that is decidedly pleasing to an audience.

The Littlejohns give a most attractive performance of clever juggling and equilibrium in a setting aptly described as "A Garden of Jewels". Miss Littlejohn is a delightfully handsome girl. And there are other entertainers to fill out the bill, when Sir Harry is not on the stage.

With such a program in store for the spectators, a great crowd is expected to be present. People who are planning to attend this performance are urged to secure the tickets early as seats at the above price will not last long. The tickets may be purchased at the Santa Ana Book Store.

Dr. Lowell, who will be 76 years old on December 13, expressed a desire to retire from the presidency toward the end of the present college year. He will serve, however, until a successor is appointed. He has already been head of Harvard for 23 years, having succeeded the late Dr. Charles W. Eliot in 1909.
